PROFESSIONAL DUTIES

Stetson University

duPont-Ball Library, Head of Public Services

I oversee all Public Service units: Research Services, Circulation, Reserves, Interlibrary Loan, Library Instruction, and Government Information; train, supervise, mentor, and evaluate Public Services librarians (3 full-time and 2 part-time) and staff (2 full-time and 4 part-time); develop Public Services policies and procedures; maintain the Public Services budget; and develop the Reference collection. I serve as part of the Systems Administration Team and take a leading role in applying new technologies to the delivery of library resources and services to students, faculty, staff, and other library users; evaluate and choose public workstations and software; and serve as the library webmaster with primary responsibility for creating and overseeing the library's web pages and social media outlets. I also coordinate the staffing, maintenance, and scheduling of the library facility.

University of Central Florida

Curriculum Materials Center, Interim Department Head

I oversaw all day-to-day operations of the library, wrote and managed operational policy, and created and achieved both short- and long-term organizational goals. I hired, supervised, and evaluated three paraprofessional staff and six student assistants. Additionally, I assessed their needs in order to provide the necessary training, equipment, supplies, and information. I marketed CMC services and collections to and supported the library needs of College of Education faculty, staff, and students. I developed, maintained, and evaluated the CMC collection and facilitated donation of gifts. I conducted CMC orientations and instructional sessions and created and maintained instructional materials in multiple formats including online tutorials and videos. I engaged in research which resulted in scholarly publications and presentations and served the profession, university and library through committee work.

Reference and Information Literacy & Outreach

I provided Reference service at the Reference desk and via Ask-A-Librarian for members of the UCF and surrounding community; managed and coordinated the UCF Libraries' library instruction program, and taught both general and subject specific library instruction classes; collected materials in the subject areas of History, Marketing, Finance, and Economics; oversaw the UCF Libraries' Patent and Trademark Depository Program; served on University and Professional committees as appropriate.

Louisiana State University

Reference

I provided Reference service at the Reference desk and via Reference chat; collected materials in all the Business subject areas; taught subject specific library instruction classes; oversaw the Middleton Library's Patent and Trademark Depository Program; served on University and Professional committees as appropriate.
